Welcome Messages

From the Mayor of Falun Jonny Gahnshag

On behalf of the Municipality of Falun, I would like to welcome you to the 20th International Safe Community Conference. I hope you will be able to share your experiences with Safe Community work in discussions with others while also learning about new methods during the lectures.

Falun was actually one of the first Swedish towns to attract tourists. In the 17th and 18th centuries the copper mine in Falun was one of the largest in the world and one of the largest workplaces in Sweden with more than 1,200 employed miners. In those days, Falun was the second largest town in Sweden after Stockholm and is now on the UNESCO World Heritage list.

Today, Falun is currently experiencing both change and expansion. The joint focus on three strong profile areas has provided a solid base for developments that will benefit the town and its surroundings well into the future.

It is within the three areas of health & sports, culture & tourism, and media & IT that many of Falun's strong and dedicated entrepreneurs come together to create new ventures. A centre for education and business has been set up at the Dalregementet Business Park, and Falun is also expanding within other areas. Together we are working to create a dynamic and creative business environment for small and large companies, be they newly established or well-established.

We have been working with the Safe Community concept since the beginning of 1990 and became a designated Safe Community in 1995. We still work hard to continue developing our work, and we would like to share our experiences with you during the conference.

Several organizations have collaborated in the planning of the conference: WHO Collaborating Centre on Community Safety Promotion, Karolinska Institutet, Dalarna County Council, Dalarna University, Dalarna Research Institute, Dalarna County Administrative Board, and the Municipality of Falun.

As the Mayor of Falun, I – together with my staff – give full support to the conference. It is a great honour for both me and Falun to be its host for this its jubilee year.

On behalf of the Municipality of Falun, I would like to welcome you to the 20th International Safe Community Conference in Falun and hope that you enjoy participating in the sessions and events that are lined up over the next few days.

Jonny Gahnshag
Mayor of Falun

Welcome Messages

From the Head of the International Organizing Committee Professor Leif Svanström

We are very proud to organize the Jubilee Conference and to celebrate 20 years with the Safe Community movement. The theme for the conference is “What is good about and what changes must be made to International Safe Community Development?” We have received more than 350 abstracts for oral and poster sessions from all over the world. It has been an interesting job to review them all and give the authors proper opportunities to share – we can't say we succeeded with all – then we would have needed more than a week-long conference!

Falun, the capital of the region Dalarna in Sweden, has worked with the Safe Community concept since the beginning of 1990 and became a designated Safe Community in 1995. The local organizers have spent hours and hours in order to give the best of prerequisites for the Jubilee Conference – we are very grateful for their work!

And we are happy to see you in Falun!

Leif Svanström

Welcome Messages

From the Chair of the Local Organizing Committee of the 20th International Safe Community Conference, Roza Güclü Hedin

Dear Friends,

It is my great privilege and honour to be able to welcome you to the 20th International Conference on Safe Communities taking place here in Falun, Sweden.

This is a jubilee conference where together we will discuss and welcome the future of Safe Communities.

Several hundred participants and honoured guests have gathered here to share their experiences and to focus on the concept of the Safe Community movement. The planning of this conference has required time, commitment and confidence. Much time has been spent in the preparation and planning of what has become a fantastic programme, which includes opening and closing ceremonies as well as a welcome reception and a gala dinner. The programme has a variety of different and varied parallel sessions and plenary lectures that renowned speakers have been invited to lead us through.

I sincerely hope that you will take advantage of the wealth of knowledge that you will have access to during the conference and that you will leave Falun with a smile, ideas, hope and inspiration to continue the good work at home.

Once again, welcome to the 20th International Safe Community Conference, welcome to Falun and welcome to Sweden!

Ms Roza Güclü Hedin, Member of the Swedish Parliament

Guidelines for Presentations

USB Sticks for Presentations

Mark the USB stick with your name and give your presentation file(s) your own name and your abstract title. If you are going to make your keynote speech or other oral presentation on Wednesday September 7, you have to submit your USB stick on Tuesday September 6 at the registration desk at Grand Hotel. All speakers on Thursday and Friday are requested to go to the registration and information desk at Folkets Hus at least one day in advance. Computers with an English version of Windows 7 and MS Office 2010 will be provided.

Time Limits for Presentations – Parallel Sessions

Every speaker will have a maximum of time for his/her oral presentation and then a few minutes for any remarks/questions. As we want to give every speaker the same opportunity and time to present his/her material, the moderators will be very strict with these time limits.

Poster Presentations

Poster displays should be mounted on a numbered poster board no later than 08:40 on the designated date and removed after 17:00 the same day at Folkets Hus. The size of each poster should be a maximum 90 cm (width) x 120 cm (height). Any displays after the designated take-down will be discarded.

A big, warm thank you!

We would like to express our sincere and warm gratitude to everyone who has shown such dedication in the work towards this year's 20th International Safe Community Conference.

We are extremely grateful for all the work put in by individuals, organizations and companies: your help was invaluable. We would also like to direct our gratitude to our collaborative partners – local, regional and national – who have supported us in our work and made it possible for us to welcome so many conference participants from both near and far to such rewarding days.

It is such commitment and support that will allow us to continue our work with Safe Communities well into the future.

Thank you once again.

The Local Organizing Committee for the 20th
International Safe Community Conference
