

Angela Poroli

Angela is currently working as a public health strategist in the Municipality of Falun, Sweden. She has been working with public health issues in both municipalities and county councils for many years, mostly in Sweden. She also worked and studied in Norway for a few years.

She has been working with injury prevention and Safe Community in the Municipality of Falun since 2005 and has also been a member of the board since the Swedish Association for Safe Communities started in 2006.

The Municipality of Falun and the WHO Collaborating Centre on Community Safety Promotion will host the 2011 International Safe Community Conference which also celebrates the 20th jubilee in Falun on September 6-9, 2011. Angela is a member of the National Organizing Committee. She speaks several languages besides Swedish such as English, Italian and German.

Education

She graduated as a nurse and PE teacher in the 1980s in Stockholm, Sweden and was awarded a Degree of Master (two years) in Community Care - Health promotion work and social change in the local community - in 2006 from the University of Karlstad, Sweden.