

Steering Committee East Africa Network
Mike Wilson

I work for the Peercorps Trust Fund of Tanzania as a Project Coordinator. My background encompasses anthropology, injury prevention and community development. I currently lead a multidisciplinary research group whose aim is to investigate the patterns and risk factors for injuries among children in Dar es Salaam city. Our specific interest in this study is to eventually outline important risk factors which could form the basis for community based interventions.