

JANVIÈRE MARIMBU'S CV

Dr Janvière Marimbu, MD, Pediatrics and Master in Public Health.

Function:

National professional officer in WHO Burundi Office, in charge of maternal, neonatal, infant and adolescent health programs. Also focal person for Nutrition and Mental Health programs.

Actually, in collaboration with partners (UNFPA & UNICEF), my main activities related to the prevention of injury and community safety promotion are:

- Prevention of violence against women,
- Training of stakeholders for global management (clinic and psychosocial) of adolescents victims of rape,
- Planning of Food Safety
- Training of community agents for mental health promotion after armed conflict.